

Dear Parents,

SWAG is planning a Day walk and picnic on Saturday 15th Sept.

The walk will take us to Palona Cave in the Royal National Park southern Sydney and will take approx. 3 hrs including stops and a picnic lunch.

WHEN – Saturday 15th September 2018

Starting 11am - from the car park off Sir Bertram Stevens Drive.

Travel time from Hurstville is 35-40 min, please travel time.

We will return to the cars around 2pm

WHERE - Starting at the intersection of: Lady Carrington Drive & Sir Bertram Stevens Drive

- Travel south to the suburb of Waterfall
- At Waterfall exit the highway towards the train station.
follow the road into the Royal National Park (called Mc Kell Avenue)
- Approx 5km this crosses a small bridge and comes to a "T" intersection.
- Turn left onto Sir Bertram Stevens Drive – an uphill winding road.
- In 600m find road parking on the left or right – left side is the start of our walk.

COST - No cost – please bring own packed lunch and snacks

$12 Royal National Park entry is required per car. (unless you already have a Parks pass)

If you need to pay park entry, you are advised to purchase this at the Royal National Park entry near Loftus, then return to the Princes Highway and travel to Waterfall.
