Telstra Museum 2021

Dear Parents,

SWAG is planning to visit the Telstra Communication Museum in Bankstown – all family members are welcome to attend, especially dads to enjoy a Father's Day outing and reminisce the 'good old days'.

The Telstra Museum offers a nostalgic trip through 150 years of telephone history. With a guided tour and short presentation/movie. The display includes telephones from 1878 to the present day - from; morse code demonstrations, operating a manual switchboard, public telephones, and many other memorabilia.

If driving or attending as a family, you are welcome to go directly to Bankstown.

WHEN – 7th September 2021

Be at the venue from 7pm so there are two choices;
6:30 leave from Hurstville, if you need a lift or want to travel together
7:00 meet SWAG at Bankstown - parking available at the Bankstown RSL
Return to Hurstville before 9pm

WHERE: 12 Kitchener Parade Bankstown NSW 2200

BRING: Wear suitable clothes (swag uniform is not required)
+ wear your SWAG cap/beanie so we can all be identified as one group.

COST: No cost
